

MEMORANDUM

May 22, 2002

TO: Governor

FROM: John

RE: Nissan Scholarship press conference

Four students are being honored at this press conference and luncheon:

- Javier J. Calderon, Madison-Ridgeland Academy (hometown: Madison)
 - Plans to attend USM, major in psychology or biology
- Arlecia L. Hudson, Canton High School (Canton)
 - Plans to attend JSU, major in social work
 - Wants to become a human resources manager in the auto industry
- LaRea E. McWilliams, MS School for Math & Science (Ruleville)
 - Plans to attend MSU, major in education
- Karolina Sarnowska, Hancock High School (Diamondhead)
 - Plans to attend MSU, major in engineering

These students are the first recipients of the Nissan Scholarship, which covers full tuition, fees and books.

Emil Hassan will speak first, then introduce IHL Commissioner Tom Layzell, Dave Boyer, Lt. Gov. Tuck, and you for remarks.